DETAILED ACTION

Election/Restrictions

1. Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. 121:
 - I. Claims 4-7, drawn to a metal hydride alkaline storage cell, classified in class 429, subclass 218.2.
 - II. Claims 9-17, drawn to a method of manufacturing a metal hydride alkaline storage cell, classified in class 29, subclass 623.1.

The inventions are distinct, each from the other because of the following reasons:

2. Inventions Group I and Group II are related as process of making and product made. The inventions are distinct if either or both of the following can be shown: (1) that the process as claimed can be used to make other and materially different product or (2) that the product as claimed can be made by another and materially different process (MPEP § 806.05(f)). In the instant case the product can be made by a different method such as using metal sulfate as the metal compound which is soluble in an electrolyte of a metal hydride alkaline storage cell to produce a negative electrode comprising hydrogen absorbing alloy powder having a layer of hydrogen absorbing alloy oxide formed on the surface thereof and having a catalytic metal dotted on the layer of the hydrogen absorbing alloy oxide in a granular state.
3. Because these inventions are distinct for the reasons given above and have acquired a separate status in the art as shown by their different classification, restriction for examination purposes as indicated is proper.

Art Unit: 1745

4. During a telephone conversation with Daniel Geselowitz on 6/19/2003 a provisional election was made with traverse to prosecute the invention of Group I, claims 4-7. Affirmation of this election must be made by applicant in replying to this Office action. Claims 9-17 are withdrawn from further consideration by the examiner, 37 CFR 1.142(b), as being drawn to a non-elected invention.
5. Applicant is reminded that upon the cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a request under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(i).

Response to Preliminary amendment

6. This Office Action is responsive to the preliminary amendment filed on 8/8/2001. Claims 1-3, and 8 have been cancelled. Claims 4-7 and 11 have been amended. Claims 4-7 and 9-17 are pending. Claims 9-17 are withdrawn from further consideration as being drawn to a non-elected invention. Claims 4-7 are rejected for reasons given below.

Priority

7. Acknowledgment is made of applicant's claim for foreign priority under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d). The certified copy has been filed in parent Application No. 09/141,140, filed on 8/27/1998.

Art Unit: 1745

8. It is noted that a certified translation of the foreign priority has been made in the parent case 09/141,140 in accordance with 37 CFR 1.55 which removes JP 10-134806 as an effective reference. See MPEP § 201.15.

Information Disclosure Statement

9. The information disclosure statement filed on 8/8/2001 has been considered by the Examiner.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

10. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

11. Claims 4-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claims 4-6, the limitation “a substrate which is soluble in the electrolyte; said substrate being selected from the group consisting of a metal fluoride, a metal chloride, a metal iodide, and a metal sulfide” is indefinite because it is unclear why the metal compounds are being referred to as substrates. It appears applicants intend to claim “substance” instead of “substrate”.

According to Merriam Webster's Collegiate Dictionary (Tenth Edition, Merriam-Webster, Incorporated, Springfield, 1997) a substrate is defined as “a substratum” and a substratum is defined as “an underlying support”. The metal compounds were not disclosed as substrates in the original disclosure.

Claim 7 depending from claim 6 is also rejected for the same.

Furthermore, in claims 4-7, the limitation "a catalytic metal or metal compound is dotted on said layer of hydrogen-absorbing alloy oxide in a granular state by adding a substance which is soluble in the electrolyte" is indefinite because it is unclear how a substance as the metal compound that is soluble in the electrolyte would dot the layer of hydrogen-absorbing alloy oxide in a granular state. Furthermore, it is unclear how two different results, that of the alloy oxide being coated by a catalytic metal and that of the alloy oxide being coated by the metal compound can be effected by the same process disclosed. A catalytic metal appears to be either nickel, aluminum, cobalt and copper in light of the specification.

Double Patenting

12. The nonstatutory double patenting rejection is based on a judicially created doctrine grounded in public policy (a policy reflected in the statute) so as to prevent the unjustified or improper timewise extension of the "right to exclude" granted by a patent and to prevent possible harassment by multiple assignees. See In re Goodman, 11 F.3d 1046, 29 USPQ2d 2010 (Fed. Cir. 1993); In re Longi, 759 F.2d 887, 225 USPQ 645 (Fed. Cir. 1985); In re Van Ornum, 686 F.2d 937, 214 USPQ 761 (CCPA 1982); In re Vogel, 422 F.2d 438, 164 USPQ 619 (CCPA 1970); and, In re Thorington, 418 F.2d 528, 163 USPQ 644 (CCPA 1969).

A timely filed terminal disclaimer in compliance with 37 CFR 1.321(c) may be used to overcome an actual or provisional rejection based on a nonstatutory double patenting ground provided the conflicting application or patent is shown to be commonly owned with this application. See 37 CFR 1.130(b).

Effective January 1, 1994, a registered attorney or agent of record may sign a terminal disclaimer. A terminal disclaimer signed by the assignee must fully comply with 37 CFR 3.73(b).

13. Claims 4-7 are rejected under the judicially created doctrine of obviousness-type double patenting as being unpatentable over claims 1 and 4 of U.S. Patent No. 6,322,925 B1. Although the conflicting claims are not identical, they are not patentably distinct from each other because claims 1 and 4 of U.S. Patent No. 6,322,925 B1 disclose common subject matter with instant claims 4-7 and anticipate instant claims 4-7.
